

The Law Office of Kevin M. Gilhool is a law firm in Southgate Michigan, dedicated to helping clients facing difficult issues due to health care crisis, incapacity, disability or death. Our services include elder law, Medicaid eligibility planning, Veteran's Administration, non-service connected disability benefits advice, estate and trust planning (including durable powers of attorney for finances and health, wills, trusts and deeds), special needs trusts, probate and trust administration (including ancillary probates), guardianship, advice regarding medical debt incurred by seniors, will and trust contests, and litigation regarding financial exploitation.